

A TIME FOR ALL THINGS

© Andrea Robertson August 2014

V1 There's a time for singing
A time for dancing
A time to celebrate
A time for rejoicing
So take some time
For all of these things
And don't lose sight...of your blessings

V2 There's a season for change
A season for growing
A season for letting go
And not always knowing
So allow the seasons
To pass on through your life
And don't lose sight...of your blessings

V3 There's a time for sorrow
A time for mourning
A time to say goodbye
A time for reflecting
So take some time
For all of these things
But don't lose sight...of your blessings

Repeat Verse 1
