

SEA AROUND THE SHORE

Tiffany Eckhardt

When the sun is getting low and the day is at an end

And you've got nowhere to go and you cannot find a friend

When the deep dark of night stretches out like a long lonely road

And you cannot find the light and you cannot face it alone

When your sad and broken heart cannot take it any more

Let me hold you in my arms like the sea around the shore

Well the sun is going to rise there will be a brand new day

You will walk that lonely road yes i know you'll find your way
